Humanitarian Aid and Rescue Project, also known as HARP Rescue is a 501(c)3 Nonprofit Organization Specializing in High-Risk Extraction and Combating Human Trafficking and Child Sexual Exploitation Both Domestically and Internationally.

HARP Rescue is Made Up of Experts in Military and Government Intelligence, Warfare, Negotiations, OSINT, Aerial Reconnaissance, and Clandestine Operations.

HOW HARP BEGAN

HARP Rescue was founded by Burke Bryant to address the urgent needs of those trapped in war zones, regions experiencing ethnic cleansing, and areas affected by disasters and terrorism. Recognizing a significant gap in the effectiveness of existing rescue efforts, Bryant combined his expertise with that of other military professionals to create a highly specialized response team dedicated to saving lives where others could not.

HIGH-RISK EXTRACTIONS

HARP specializes in rescuing individuals from remote and dangerous locations where others hesitate to venture. Since 2016, they have navigated some of the most challenging and dangerous terrains on Earth, including battlefields, natural disasters, cartel territories, terrorist strongholds, and underground trafficking tunnels.

COMBATANTS OF HUMAN TRAFFICKING

HARP conducts extensive international open-source intelligence (OSINT) investigations and undercover operations to uncover human trafficking networks and their illicit activities. We collaborate closely with law enforcement and other state and federal agencies to apprehend human traffickers and dismantle their criminal networks, ensuring justice is served.
